Clarkstown ranked No. 71 as best place to live

The town of Clarkstown has been included in the 100 Best Places to Live list compiled by Money Magazine. The town of 83,000 was ranked No. 71 out of 100, with only three other New York cities making it to the list. The list included cities with populations between 50,000 and 300,000, and ranked them based on income, job growth, cost of living, housing affordability, schools, arts and leisure, medical care, diversity and taxes. Clarkstown has also been ranked among the five safest communities to live in.
